Wake up and Be Heard

creative services

Odyssey Design believes every client is unique. We want to work with you to customize your distinct style, so you can make a significant impact - a great first impression, and enjoy every step along the way!

Odyssey Design can help with the graphic needs of your company, whether your art department is on vacation or overloaded or you need freelance services. We want to take on your new projects or enhance your functionality.

project management

Project management services are aimed to assist in large project execution. Daily auditing of activities, schedules, and deliverables, leading to consistent, measured results. Project supervision including subcontractor hiring and oversight, budget creation and oversight, timeline construction and implementation.

marketing

Do you have a specific marketing challenge, or do you need help with your marketing activities for 2010? Does your company have occasional marketing needs that do not require full-time personnel?

We can help you accomplish your objectives, no matter how big or small the assignment may be. From a planning session, where we take a step back and review, to a year long strategy implementation, you will have an expert available to help you overcome any marketing challenge and get your business on track to success.
