As a sponsor of Kegs & Issues, we are able to connect with influential members of southern Maine's business community - individuals who could potentially become members of the BNN family. By collaborating with the Chamber, we have been able to expand our visibility in one of our most important markets.

How can the Chamber ADVOCATE for your organization?

- Dedicated Staff Member
- Representation
- Tools, Resources, and Community Initiatives
- Public Policy

We provide: Staff focused on policies, legislation, and local/state/federal government updates.

A voice on behalf of the business community at large on topics that matter to you.

The latest news, tools, and resources relevant to our entire community

An active stance on issues impacting businesses.

The Chamber has been a community leader and worked to represent the values and goals of small businesses like mine. Be it the local, regional, or state level, the Chamber has provided valuable information and kept an eye out for our interests.

Paul Farrell, Owner - Union Bagel

How can the Chamber help you GIVE BACK?

Support and partner with 200+ Chamber member nonprofit organizations.

Serve on a board or committee and advocate for your community, assist at local events, and benefit the people in your town.

Offer (and enjoy) discounts from fellow members and share valuable content with our membership.

- Philanthropy
- Chamber Boards and Planning Committees
- Member-to-Member Opportunities

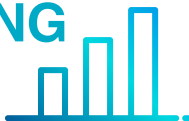

Serving on the all-volunteer Falmouth-Cumberland Community Chamber Board allows me to give back to both communities by organizing benefit events and scholarships for graduating seniors and making sure the concerns of our local towns are heard in the greater region.
